

PLANNERS' LUNCH

April 16th, 2010

11:45 to 1:30

2nd Floor
Carnegie Library
LaGrange St.
Historic Downtown Newnan, GA

Q: Why did Historic Downtown Newnan receive Georgia Planning Association's first ever Best Places in Georgia Award?

A: Come see for yourself!

Join us as Keith Brady, Newnan's 16-year Mayor, tells us about Newnan's six nationally registered historic districts including its vibrant downtown. Mike Furbush, City Landscape Architect and Arborist, will tell us about Newnan's parks and streetscape program. After we learn about current projects and the challenges that Newnan faced in revitalizing its downtown, we'll take a walking tour around the square and experience an authentically southern downtown with its picturesque mix of architectural styles and abundant small town charm.

Lunch Menu (catered by The Redneck Gourmet):

- An assortment of sandwiches and roll-ups including turkey club, chicken salad croissant, fried chicken / bacon tortilla wrap, and pimento and cheese.
- An assortment of salads including Greek pasta salad, Broccoli cranberry salad and Redneck Caviar (southwestern corn, black beans and peppers).
- Kahlua Krunch mousse or Lemon Delight mousse.

Space is limited and we will guarantee a specific amount of food with the caterer prior to the event. So, please note that all reservations will be charged $25.00 unless cancelled by April 14th.
