Many questions require professional judgment, combined with technical knowledge
AICP Exam Review

Nature of the Content

- More breadth of subject matter than depth
- Emphasis on public agency management
- Situations: “What would you do if...” questions
- Familiarity with the public planning process: planner’s roles vs. elected officials, applications of technical knowledge, analysis of alternatives, ethics, public interest, and public involvement in decision-making

  - Marking questions
  - Skipping questions
  - Review feature at the end of the exam
  - On-line tutorial at www.planning.org/tutorial
Tips for Taking the Exam

- Go through the exam at least twice
- First time: answer “easy” questions
- Use ‘Mark’ function for hard questions, and move on!
- After the first run through check your watch
- Go through the second (or third) time for ‘Mark’d questions and answer ALL questions
- Enter your best guess - no penalty for wrong answers
- Check all the other questions, but be careful about “second-guessing”!
Your score is determined by the number of questions you answer correctly. Therefore it is to your advantage to answer every question. If you are unsure of your answer, you can mark the question to review if time permits.

To mark a question

Click the Mark button.

To unmark a question

Questions to the Panel

Looking back on your experience with taking the AICP Exam...

1. How early did you start preparing for the test? (years? months? weeks?)
2. How long (hours) did you spend preparing for the test?
3. What were the most useful forms or methods of preparation for you?
4. What were the best 2-3 sources of information that you would recommend?
5. What were the types of questions that you found to be the most difficult?
6. If you had it to do over, what would you do differently?
